

Basic Military Requirements

Chapter 9

1. When conducting a hand salute, the forearm should be _____ degrees to the ground.
a. 25 b. 35 c. 40 d. 45
2. When you are on board a ship and your ship is conducting passing honors, you carry on after?
a. 1 blast b. 2 blasts c. 3 blasts d. Once the ship has passed
3. A vice consul will receive how many gun salutes?
a. 5 b. 7 c. 10 d. 21
4. The PREP pennant is hoisted how many minutes before conducting colors?
a. 5 b. 10 c. 15 d. 30
5. When is the ship's largest ensign flown?
a. Sundays b. Authorized holidays c. Memorial Day only d. Both a & b
6. On Memorial Day, the ensign is at half-mast until:
a. 1200 b. 1220 c. 1230 d. Evening Colors
7. On board a ship, the officer's dining facility is called a:
a. Messing compartment b. Officer's Mess c. Wardroom d. Mess hall
8. Where is the Union Jack flown?
a. Stern b. The superstructure c. Bow d. None of the Above
9. If you are indoors in civilian clothes and the National Anthem is played, do you salute?
a. Yes b. No
10. On a boat, enlisted personnel should sit:
a. Wherever there is room b. In the stern c. Towards the bow d. Does not matter